

Contract - Independent Contractors

I, _____, agree to be an independent contractor for edMe Apps and create questions for 1 mobile application about the book:

Book Title: _____

Each app will have 4-10 questions per chapter. Compensation will be $2 per question plus 20% of net profit (money received from the app stores) for the entire time the app is sold.

This contract will end after the questions are submitted OR three months, whichever comes first.

Contractor Signature: _____

Materials are not plagiarized, edMe Apps own the materials

I certify I will not plagiarize any materials submitted to edMe Apps.

Specifically, I will not take any copyright materials or take credit for any questions written by other people. I agree that edMe Apps will use the questions in a mobile application that will have Creative Commons licensing that will allow any other teacher or school to use the questions without any problem.

edMe Apps will own the questions and any ancillary documents generated by this contract. I am free to share any information or insights I gain while writing these questions.
